DAVID BUNNING
U. S. District Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky

- David Bunning, 35, is an Assistant United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Kentucky. After ten years in that position, Bunning has tried more than twenty cases to verdict or judgment and has gained substantial experience litigating both criminal and civil matters.
- Bunning graduated from the University of Kentucky in 1988 with a B.B.A. degree and in 1991 with his J.D.
- Bunning received commendations from the U.S. Customs Service in 2001, and from the United States Secret Service in 2000. He also received a Certificate of Appreciation during National Crime Victims' Rights Week in 1999. He is a member of the Kentucky Bar Association.
- Bunning is also active in his community as a volunteer in the Parish Kitchen, a former board member of the Family Nurturing Center of Northern Kentucky, as a Youth Coach for the YMCA of Campbell County, and as a member of the Parish Council of his church.
- Bunning is the son of Senator Jim Bunning.
