Subject: List of Participants

This is the group of ten, Brett. I have listed their Soc and DOB numbers as well as indicated what organizations or research interests they represent.

I have noted the two people who have testified before Horn's subcommittee, Anna Nelson and Mark Rozell. They were not at the December meeting nor was Howard Silver of the Consortium of Social Science Associations.

Carl M. Cannon - incoming (2003) President of the White House Correspondents Association and National Journal White House correspondent,
(b)(6)

Scott J. Bosley - Executive Director of the Society of American Newspaper Editors, (b)(6)

Arnita Jones - Executive Director of the American Historical Association,
(b)(6)

Anna Nelson - scholar in the Department of History at American University who writes on National Security issues and regularly uses material in presidential libraries. She testified before Horn's subcommittee in the November hearings. (b)(6)

Mark Rozell - scholar who writes and testifies on Executive Privilege. He testified before Horn's subcommittee in both the November and April hearings.

He is representing the American Political Science Association. He chairs the Department of Political Science at Catholic University. (b)(6)

(b)(6)

Bruce Craig - Executive Director of the National Coordinating Committee for the Promotion of History. (b)(6)

Steven Hensen - President, the Society of American Archivists. Wrote a piece in the Washington Post "Outlook:" section in December on the Executive Order.

Is on the faculty at Duke University. (b)(6)

Terry Sullivan - The Baker Institute and Associate Director of the White House 2001 Project; he met Judge Gonzales when Gonzales went to speak at the Baker Institute last year. He is in the Department of Political Science at the University of North Carolina. (b)(6)

Howard Silver - Executive Director of the Consortium of Social Science Association, (b)(6)

Martha Joynt Kumar - I write about issues related to White House communications, head the White House 2001 Project, and on the faculty of the Department of Political Science at Towson University and the organizer of the group. Since Bob Spitzer who heads the Presidency Research Group is not going to be there, I will put in my oar for the PRG. (b)(6)

Everyone knows the deal: off the record. At the same time, you know it is really difficult to keep meeting information under wraps. We are all looking forward to an interesting discussion of a topic we care about from a variety of angles. You and Judge Gonzales from the viewpoint of protecting information, scholars and news people as users of information from presidential libraries

Warm Wishes,

Martha
