Dear Panelists:

First, I want to thank you again for agreeing to participate in the Washington Council of Lawyers' brownbag panel on judicial nominations on December 11th.

I am attaching the Council's flyer for this event. We would very much appreciate it if you would circulate this flyer to your colleagues or anyone else who may be interested in attending.

We will be in touch the first week of December to discuss the exact format and any further logistics for the event. Meanwhile, feel free to contact me with any questions at this email address or at [REDACTED]

Thanks again --

Sharon Bradford Franklin

THE WASHINGTON COUNCIL OF LAWYERS

invites you to attend a Brownbag Lunch Forum on

JUDICIAL NOMINATIONS IN A PARTISAN ERA

Wednesday, December 11, 2002
12:00 noon to 2:00 p.m.

Jenner & Block
Concourse Level Meeting Room
601 13th Street, N.W.

For at least as long as the past two Presidential administrations, some of the fiercest partisan battles between Democrats and Republicans have been over judicial nominations for the federal courts. This expert panel will explore the roles of the President in selecting judicial nominees and of the Senate in providing “advice and consent” on the nominations. Panelists will also examine which qualifications and criteria the President and the Senate should consider when evaluating a particular candidate.

PANELISTS:

Nan Aron, President, Alliance for Justice;
C. Boyden Gray, Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering;
Brett M. Kavanaugh, Associate Counsel to President George W. Bush;
Lisa Graves, Chief Nominations Counsel, Senator Patrick Leahy;
Moderator: Richard B. Jerome, President, Richard Jerome, PC

This event is a brownbag lunch. Beverages will be provided. Cost: $10 per person; $7 for Council Member or Public Interest; $3 for Students.

The Washington Council of Lawyers is a non-profit organization of lawyers committed to the spirit and practice of law in the public interest.
