Any other objections to appointment?

I spoke with Richard and Leslie on this issue earlier this week since they wouldn't be in the office today. Per Richard, we'll have to wait until October to appoint Shepherd. The vacancy doesn't occur until Judge Arnold retires on 10/09/06. Per Leslie, we're looking at the 2nd or 3rd week of August for Gorsuch's appointment. He needs to wrap up a few things at DOJ. I'll be calling Gelpi this morning regarding his appointment.

Mr. President, I am pleased to speak today in support of the nomination of Neal Gorsuch to the 10th Circuit Court of Appeals.

At a time when too many judicial nominations are bogged down by partisan and ideological rancor, it is heartening to see a nominee that Senators from both parties can agree on.

While Mr. Gorsuch has spent the majority of his professional life in Washington D.C., his roots in the state of Colorado are strong – going back four generations. Once confirmed, he will return to Colorado where I hope that he will live up to the standard set by a long line of distinguished jurists from our state, including the late Justice Byron White.

At the young age of 38, Mr. Gorsuch has already had an impressive legal career. After earning degrees from Columbia University, Harvard Law School, and Oxford University, he went on to clerk on the D.C. Circuit and U.S. Supreme Courts.

Following his clerkships, he spent nearly 10 years in private practice before becoming Principal Deputy to the Associate Attorney General of the United States – where he helps manage the Department's civil litigation.

I have had the chance to visit with Mr. Gorsuch and learn about both his personal background and his professional experience. I found him to be intelligent, thoughtful, and appreciative of the great honor it is to be nominated to the federal bench. It is no surprise, then, that the ABA rated him unanimously well qualified.

Of course, it takes more than a great resume to be a great judge. In addition to professional excellence as a lawyer, a judicial nominee should have a demonstrated dedication to fairness, impartiality, precedent, and the avoidance of judicial activism – from both the left and the right.

I believe that Mr. Gorsuch meets this very high test – and I believe he will make a fine addition to the 10th Circuit Court of Appeals.

All of them have been reported out of Committee to the Executive Calendar. None have a floor vote scheduled yet, but the Majority Leader is trying to get votes set on all of them except Smith. That nom is stilled hung up with the California Senators. I anticipate that all the others will move this month if at all possible. They will try to get them votes on Thursdays and when the senate comes back on Mondays/Tuesdays.

Mr. President, I am pleased to speak today in support of the nomination of Neal Gorsuch to the 10th Circuit Court of Appeals.

At a time when too many judicial nominations are bogged down by partisan and ideological rancor, it is heartening to see a nominee that Senators from both parties can agree on.

While Mr. Gorsuch has spent the majority of his professional life in Washington D.C., his roots in the state of Colorado are strong – going back four generations. Once confirmed, he will return to Colorado where I hope that he will live up to the standard set by a long line of distinguished jurists from our state, including the late Justice Byron White.

At the young age of 38, Mr. Gorsuch has already had an impressive legal career. After earning degrees from Columbia University, Harvard Law School, and Oxford University, he went on to clerk on the D.C. Circuit and U.S. Supreme Courts.

Following his clerkships, he spent nearly 10 years in private practice before becoming Principal Deputy to the Associate Attorney General of the United States – where he helps manage the Department’s civil litigation.

I have had the chance to visit with Mr. Gorsuch and learn about both his personal background and his professional experience. I found him to be intelligent, thoughtful, and appreciative of the great honor it is to be nominated to the federal bench. It is no surprise, then, that the ABA rated him unanimously well qualified.

Of course, it takes more than a great resume to be a great judge. In addition to professional excellence as a lawyer, a judicial nominee should have a demonstrated dedication to fairness, impartiality, precedent, and the avoidance of judicial activism – from both the left and the right.

I believe that Mr. Gorsuch meets this very high test – and I believe he will make a fine addition to the 10th Circuit Court of Appeals.

They have not yet been confirmed. A voice vote is scheduled in the Senate for later tonight, probably within the hour.

Assuming confirmation, this is the status for each nominee:

Neil Gorsuch - no impediment; seat is vacant (needs to resign as a Department of Justice official, not a PAS position, should be a short transition period.)

Bobby E. Shepherd - DO NOT APPOINT. His seat on the 8th Circuit (vice Morris S. Arnold, retiring) will not be vacant until October 10, 2006. Judge Shepherd is a sitting federal magistrate judge.

Daniel Porter Jordan III - no impediment; seat is vacant (Mr. Jordan is in private practice, may need a little time for transition.)

Gustavo Antonio Gelpi - no impediment; seat is vacant (Judge Gelpi is a sitting federal magistrate judge - can be appointed right away with no transition period required.)
