Abstract: This series includes correspondence from local, state and federal government officials as well as drafts of correspondence (to include comments) regarding the Interstate Highway System and comments on transportation legislation.

Repository: George W. Bush Presidential Library, National Archives and Records Administration, Dallas, TX gwbush.library@nara.gov (214) 346-1557

Access: Access to Bush Presidential Records is governed by the Presidential Records Act (PRA) (44 USC 22) and the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 USC 552 as amended) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright: Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Custodial History: Official records of George W. Bush's presidency are housed at the George W. Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processing note: Processed by David R. Sabo, archivist, February 2012.

Preferred Citation: Type of document; names of sender and recipient, or title of document; date; White House Office of Records Management Subject Code and case number; box number; Collection Title and series/subseries, George W. Bush Presidential Library.

Administrative History: The White House Office of Records Management is responsible for the filing and retrieval of records created during the incumbent presidential administration. The use of a filing methodology for records created or received by the White House dates to at least the early years of the 20th century, and has undergone changes since that time to cope with the ever-expanding volume of paperwork handled by the President and his staff.

The White House Office of Records Management, or ORM (or WHORM) manages the office files of individual White House staff members, as well as administration records that are arranged by subject code and case file ID number according to their general subject matter.

Scope and Content Note: HI (Interstate Highway System) is comprised of memoranda, correspondence, drafts and comments regarding the interstate highway system. The bulk of the material is related to a draft letter from Transportation Secretary Norman Mineta concerning transportation legislation. Other topics include the “Safe, Accountable, Flexible, Efficient Transportation Equity Act: A Legacy for Users” (referred to as the “Highway Bill”), the hearing on the re-opening of Pennsylvania Avenue in front of the White House, the Woodrow Wilson Bridge Replacement Project and the collapse of the I-35 bridge in Minneapolis.

System of Arrangement: Material is arranged by alphanumeric subcode and thereunder by case file number.
