Dear Mr President:

My Wife (Kathi) and I very much appreciate having been invited to witness your signing of the new Transportation Bill last Wednesday! We count it a great privilege to have been present at that historic moment.

Kathi had hoped the First Lady would have been there, because she is (in our estimation) the very definition of: "class." You certainly did very well in choosing her as a life's partner!

In 2000, we met (and talked, briefly, with you) in Davenport, Iowa – during your successful primary run for the Presidency. At that time we also got your autograph, which we consider a prized possession! We also, very much, appreciate receiving White House Christmas Cards each year. We count it a great honor!

The picture, above, is one I took (Wednesday) of you and our Congressional Representative, Speaker Hastert. We have had the privilege of meeting him a goodly number of times and he has gotten to recognize us as his Westernmost Precinct Committeemen.

You are taking correct stands on issues and not budging. Thank God for that! Please don't let the liberals intimidate you. We believe you are being mightily used of God!

As I have expressed, in previous letters, we consistently pray for you and for your family. We are most delighted that you are a practicing Christian, and we pray that God continues to mightily use you in your position as the leader of the free world!

God bless you and your family, and may He strengthen you to continue doing excellent work as you lead our magnificent nation!

Sincerely,

Don Goembel, Minister of Christ

Dear George,

As I mentioned to you on Sunday at the White House, my pilot's son, First Lt. Mark H. Dooley, 27, was killed in Iraq about three weeks ago. My wife, Christine, attended the funeral in Rutlege, Vermont, which was done with full military honors, including the riderless horse. She said it was remarkably moving (the Governor attended too!).

I know that Mark's parents, Peter C. and Marion Dooley, [redacted] (b)(6) would treasure a personal letter from you if you could find the time to write one.

Mark Dooley was a real hero, a Ranger who enlisted in the National Guard. He received numerous medals including the Purple Heart and was a member of the Wilmington, Vermont Police Department. His nickname was "Captain America" because of his patriotism and being the first person in his unit to volunteer for hazardous duty. He was killed by a roadside bomb.

I'm enclosing the last letter Mark wrote to his parents which is very moving and makes it clear he believes in your vision of our purpose in Iraq.

Mark's father, Pete was a Lieutenant Colonel in the Air Force (retired).

Thanks George. It would be so important to Pete and Marion Dooley.

Sincerely,

Stephen A. Schwarzman
D-167

P.S. And thanks to you and Laura for hosting all of us from the Kennedy Center at the White House tonight. Things at the Center, particularly the China Festival, are going especially well.

Mary Ann -

This was handed to the Chief on 10/9/05. The Chief has sent a letter to Stephen Schwarzman and the family mentioned in the article.

Lt. Mark Dooley's letter to his family in case of his death Associated Press

By The Associated Press, By The Associated Press | September 30, 2005

"Dad, Mom and Charlie;

"It is immensely hard to put into words raw emotion or put down on one piece of paper what you want people to remember you by. However, if you're reading this then I am not able to convey either in person. The best thing I can state is how much I love all three of you. It was only by God's grace that I was born into the family that I proudly call mine. Parents whose unconditional love supported me through times that others would have surely given up, and a brother whose patience and pure heart set the example I could only hope to have imitated.

"The defining points in my life were the times when I had hard realizations that everything Dad had tried to help me avoid came true. Those painful lessons made me the person that I am, and although I had always wanted to change them I knew they all happened for a reason. Pappy, I always tried to think what you would have done, or how you would have handled a situation. The times that I succeeded were the times that I followed your example. My failures were the times that I chose to ignore your solid wisdom. The greatest boast I could ever make was that I was your son.

"Mom, I have no delusions that reading or even hearing this letter read can fill my absence. Please forgive me for not being able to be there; but also remember that my leaving was in the service of something that we loved, and that most people can't comprehend its scope. Cherish in your heart that it wasn't done for any abstract reason like a flag or a foreign government's success, but our sacred honor. I love you mom, you(r) embracing love and support fueled the fire that burned through the hard times to keep me going. Don't be angry or let sadness dominate your heart, be proud. Remember that we will all be united again, and that God's knowledge is greater than we can understand. Faith insures us that his plan is the right way.

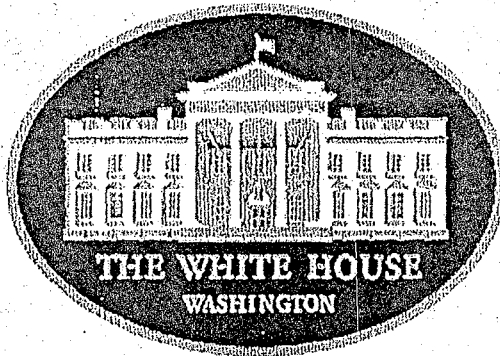

"Charlie, I am so proud of you that it hurts just to think that I won't be there when you continue to grow and shine. God has infinitely blessed the world with your presence. Don't change, just continue to refine. Remember that a good run can make stupid small things disappear, and that a funny movie is time well spent with family and friends. Most of all don't ever let restrictions be put on you, anything is possible. It is perseverance that most of the world lacks.

"Time will ease paid, and the best way to pay respect is to value why a sacrifice was made. Remember time is a gift, use it to enjoy life. My last request is that you continue to live fulfilling happy lives with God's hands holding you safely. I will see you all in God's perfect time.

"With Loving Affection and Endearment,

"Mark" ■

Dear President and Mrs. George W. Bush,

My name is Thomas Pflaumer and my family was invited by Mrs. Nancy Reagan to join in the Grand Opening of the Air Force One Pavilion on Friday, in which you will be attending. We are ecstatic about being part of this historic occasion and it is because of my youngest daughter Breanna, and her effort contacting Mrs. Reagan about the opening coinciding with her fifteenth birthday.

I hope you receive this letter before your visit to California because Breanna will be waving! Please take care and God Bless.

Subject: Funeral for soldier killed in Iraq

I am writing to request the President's attendance at my friend's funeral. He was killed Wednesday in Ramadi, Iraq with 4 other men from his area in Pennsylvania. His name was Eric Slebodnik. He was 21. He was a college student, majoring in history. He had a 4.0. He has a picture of the president hanging up in his room. His childhood sweetheart is grieving horribly. They've known each other since the cradle. He admired the president greatly, and the president's presence would greatly help to ease the suffering of his family. The funeral should be about a week from today (10/1) near Scranton, PA. He is being buried on his family's property behind his childhood home. The funeral will be private and in a secluded place. His parent's names are Joe & Cynthia Slebodnik. He had a brother named Greg. Their phone number is (b)(6). Thank you.

Dear President and Mrs. Bush,

We in Dallas hear that you are considering purchasing a home and moving to Dallas in the future. I would love to help you with that move, and would consider it such an honor. As a senior vice president and top producer with Briggs-Freeman Real Estate Brokerage – the premier residential firm for the Park Cities, Preston Hollow, and the estates areas of Dallas – I see many fine properties before they ever come on the market.

Several of your best friends, Susan and Boots Nowlin, Candy and Bill Hill, and your former neighbors in Dallas, Leslie and Scott Bumpas, are also best friends of mine. As well as being close to them personally, I also represent all of them in their real estate needs. As well, I represent the CEO of EDS, top executives of Exxon-Mobil, and other outstanding business leaders. I would consider it a privilege to be able to assist you, too, in finding a wonderful home in one of our most notable neighborhoods.

Please let me know at any time if I may send you information on the Dallas market. I look forward to hearing from you.

I continue to pray the best for you and our country.

Sincerely,

Re: Cleveland Baseball Federation: 2005 Big Leaguers Helping Little Leaguers Benefit

Dear President Bush:

On behalf of the Cleveland Baseball Federation, we would like to express our sincere gratitude and thank you for helping us raise over $65,000 at our 2005 Annual Benefit held August 14, 2005, at Jacobs Field. You may recall that your brother Marvin had you sign a Washington Nationals' Jersey (he liked it so much, we sent him one too) for our Benefit. As expected, the Jersey was a big hit and brought in $6,750.

The money raised will help us continue to provide funding so that the City of Cleveland Youth can experience playing the game of baseball and other programs promoting social and educational values to help them become productive adult citizens. Currently, we serve over 8,500 youth ranging from t-ball programs through high school ages.

In addition to our expressing our appreciation for your help, we ask that you consider inviting one of our t-ball teams to participate in the annual White House T-Ball Tournament. Given the success of this year's Benefit, our organization now has sufficient funds to send a team and participate in this wonderful program that would be a memorable event for our kids and our organization. Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Very truly yours,

Robert A. Ross

Dear President Bush,

I would like to thank you so much for taking the time to meet with our family on May 23, 2005 when you came to Rochester, N.Y. It was a moment that I will never forget. Your compassion and understanding in knowing what we have gone through really touched my heart. Our son LCPL Brian Schramm was killed on October 15, 2004. Brian not only admired you but supported you as well. He was a wonderful son and honored to have been his mother. Brian was a great American who truly believed that it was his duty as a citizen to serve this great country of ours.

Thank you also, for listening to the CD that Ken Rex wrote "A Soldier Never Dies". The first $10,000.00 of the profit from the cd was put into a fund called "Jammies for G.I.'s" the money was put toward personal care items for the wounded soldiers that arrive at Lanstuhl Germany. Brian would be proud to have helped his fellow serviceman.

President Bush you are a man of honor and integrity and I am proud of the way you are running this country. Please know that we support your efforts in keeping our soldiers in Iraq for as long as we have to be there. If we pull out I fear that Brian and all of the other fallen soldiers died in vain.

We have received tremendous emotional support from our government, friends and many other people from all over the country. We know that Brian died for freedom so others can enjoy what we as Americans sometimes take for granted.

I would like you to know that our congressman Thomas Reynolds and his office helped us a great deal. Again, I thank you for taking the time out of your busy schedule to meet with us.

Sincerely,

Mary Ellen Schramm

Dear Mr. President,

On May 23rd of this year you visited Greece New York. After your town hall meeting you took the time to visit with my family. I want to thank you for honoring the memory of our son Brian Schramm. Your compassion and sincerity were very comforting.

At the time I was too emotional to say much. However I would like you to know that you have the support of our entire family. You are in our thoughts and prayers for the many challenges that you have experienced during your presidency.

Thank you for the photos, and the time you spent with us. We will always remember your visit.

Sincerely,

Dear Mary Ellen and Keith:

I was honored to meet with you during my visit to Rochester. Thank you for your time.

You have shown tremendous courage in the face of terrible loss and grief. Our Nation is grateful for your family's service and sacrifice in defense of America's freedom and security, and I am proud to have been your son's Commander in Chief.

Thanks as well for the CD. I appreciate having this thoughtful memento of Brian's heroism and bravery.

May God bless you.

Dear Mary Ellen and Keith:

I am deeply saddened by the loss of your son, Lance Corporal Brian K. Schramm, USMC.

Brian's noble service in Operation Iraqi Freedom has helped to preserve the security of our homeland and the freedoms America holds dear. Our Nation will not forget Brian's sacrifice and unselfish dedication in our efforts to make the world more peaceful and more free. We will forever honor his memory.

Laura and I send our heartfelt sympathy. We hope you will be comforted by your faith and the love and support of your family and friends. May God bless you.

NRN done to date - why did we get it so late?

Dear Mr. President:

First, let me offer congratulations on your re-election. I remember when you told Watts and me back in September '99 at that Pittsburgh luncheon that you would not only get the nomination but would be elected, so winning again was not a surprise to at least some of us.

I understand also that you told Evans Rose our Yale Baseball story last fall when you visited here again and did like we saw when Barry and Pat Parkhill saw you in your office with your brother during the ACC Tournament weekend. My friends enjoy hearing you tell that story as have I. In retrospect, I really wish that you had had that opportunity to pitch against Navy because that meant a lot more to you than what Ethan was doing for me at the time.

Regardless, we have all moved on. The real purpose of this letter is to reiterate my support for Merritt E. "Doc" McInight being nominated for a current opening in the United States Sentencing Commission. I wrote previously about eighteen months ago in support of Ted and understand that the process is moving ahead with all deliberate speed. Hopefully, action will come soon and Ted has the background and the credentials to be a well deserved appointee.

I hope that the rest of your time in Washington goes well and know that you are probably already looking ahead to being able to enjoy some baseball games in relative peace and quiet. As I have said before, the Pirates truly do have a wonderful facility at PNC Park and I know that Watts would enjoy your company any time that the Cardinals are in town beating up on the Pirates.

Take care and good luck, George.

Best,
Bob

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for the kind and moving words you spoke at David's service.

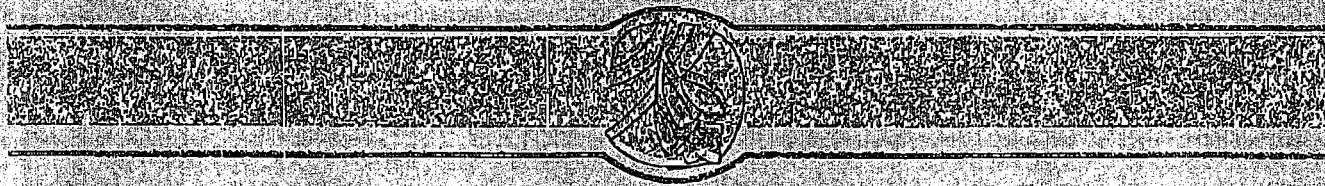

I, like you, are grateful for the time we had with David. We are so thankful we were able to celebrate his marriage with him. I'm also struggling and hurting so deeply with his death. He was so close to coming home that I had already begun to plan his welcome home party. It is your prayers and support that have sustained us.

I have sent a couple notes to President Bush. I truly understand how busy he is with the aftermath of Katrina, but I would really like to meet him and/or his wife, Laura. I'm not seeking any publicity and have nothing negative to say (Well, maybe I'm upset that Texas beat OSU!), but I want him to know David.

Dear Fran and Mike,

Your thoughtful expression of sympathy has been a great comfort during this time of sorrow.

Sincerely,

Toccara Green

Tuesday, August 16 2005 @ 08:20 AM EST
Contributed by: tomw

Baltimore Sun -- Toccara Green lingered until after midnight that last Sunday in July, eating ribs and ice cream cake and mingling cheerfully with nearly 90 friends and relatives gathered at a backyard barbecue in her honor.

She posed for pictures with new baby cousins and older relatives she had not seen for years. She prayed with members of her church. The next Sunday, her two-week leave over, the 23-year-old Rosedale woman and Army specialist returned to Iraq for the final four months of her second tour of duty.

Yesterday, members of her family reconvened to mourn her death.

Green is the first military woman from Maryland, and the 26th service member from the state, to die in Iraq since U.S. forces invaded the country more than two years ago, according to announcements from the Pentagon.

As friends and family gathered, Green's parents received a phone call from a fellow soldier and friend of their daughter who was there when she died. Green was killed Sunday when explosives detonated near her supply convoy in Al Asad, in western Iraq.

Green, a motor and transport operator, was driving a Humvee behind Spc. Nicole Coleman, the soldier who called the Green family home yesterday. Between them were several trucks carrying supplies, Coleman said over a crackling connection. When the convoy stopped to refuel and switch drivers, they climbed out of the Humvees.

"The next thing you know, explosives went off," Coleman recalled in a soft and trembling voice. "I was getting ready to get back in when I saw the first one go off."

Coleman said she dropped to the ground, then jumped back into the Humvee when she heard the second explosion. Inside, she heard there were casualties but didn't know who.

The next time she left her vehicle, she said, she saw her friend lying in a pool of blood. She recognized her, Coleman said, by the scarf on her head. Someone was performing cardiopulmonary resuscitation on Green, Coleman said, but she was dead before the medevac unit arrived.

"I just started screaming," she said. "I never lost a best friend before."

The two met during basic training in 2003, Coleman said, and referred to themselves as "Batman and Robin" or "Pinky and the Brain."

Green had long wanted to join the Army, her family said, and spent four years in ROTC while attending Forest Park High School in Baltimore.

Her father, with whom she was close, wasn't comfortable with his only daughter joining the military, especially because her older brother had joined the Marines, the brother, Garry Green Jr., said yesterday.

So, after she graduated from high school in 2000, Green attended Norfolk State University in Virginia, where she studied telecommunications and broadcasting.

Her desire to join the Army never waned, and in January 2003, she enlisted, her brother said.

"She loved her country," he said. "She wanted to do something to help, not just sit around and talk about it."

When Green was 13, her father had begun to teach her about cars, and she loved to work on them, her brother said. So it was no surprise when she told her family that her Army job would be as a motor and transport operator.

She was assigned to the Army's 57th Transportation Company, 584th Corps Support Battalion, based at Fort Drum, N.Y.

She was sent to Iraq the first time in May 2003, her brother said, and stayed for about nine months. She returned to Iraq in February.

Garry Green Jr. said his sister was eager to finish her second tour and receive a new assignment. She was talking about re-enlisting during her last visit home.

"She wasn't exactly mad about going to Iraq," he said. "She's not the type to cry that 'I gotta do this' or 'I gotta do that.' She just wanted to get it done."

He described his sister as enthusiastic and outgoing, a natural leader who could motivate others easily.

Coleman described Green as a silly, witty and excitable confidante.

At her family's church, Victory Ministries International, Green worked with the children in the congregation and read announcements, said Lenora Howze, a family friend and associate pastor.

During her last visit home, Green went to a movie with her aunt, as she always did, and went roller skating, a favorite activity.
