Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2024-0040-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of records responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult an archivist about related materials.

FOIA 2024-0040-F requested materials related to emails between Karl Rove and N. Gregory Mankiw mentioning tax or taxes.

This FOIA primarily contains discussion of different tax policies, data and discussion of the effect of tax cuts, an op-ed by Robert Barro, a draft op-ed by N. Gregory Mankiw on Social Security, a Congressional Budget Office December 2003 Long-Term Budget Outlook report, a Chamber of Commerce April 2004 special report, news articles with commentary, and multiple memoranda regarding topics such as distribution of tax cuts, the discrepancy between the household and the payroll surveys of employment, tax cut rollbacks, the Clear Skies Act, manufacturing, measures of real income growth, and national saving. Many emails transmit information requested by Karl Rove.

System of Arrangement

The materials in FOIA 2024-0040-F are a systematic body of records responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult an archivist about related materials.

Records responsive to this FOIA were found in these collection areas – George W. Bush Presidential Electronic Records.

The Executive Office of the President (EOP) instance of the Electronic Records Archive (ERA) contains electronic records created or received by President George W. Bush. These records are stored in Search and Access Sets (SAS) that represent their originating computer program, such as Exchange Email or the Worker and Visitor Entry System (WAVES). In addition to records captured from the White House's electronic systems, EOP-ERA also contains records from the home and shared drives used by White House staff.
