The Honorable George W. Bush
President of the United States of America
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20500

December 4, 2006

Dear Mr. President:

You've always been a knowledgeable friend of the nation's cattle producers, and I again request your assistance, this time in resolving an increasingly difficult situation regarding the resumption of U.S. beef exports to South Korea.

As you know, U.S. cattle producers have been extremely patient for almost three years now, but South Korea continues to find baseless excuses to block U.S. beef from access to their market. These protectionist actions are extremely destructive, especially in light of talks regarding a U.S. - South Korea Free Trade Agreement.

We cannot support trade agreements with nations that concoct their own trade rules and ignore internationally recognized trade standards. After their continued, unscientific ban on our products we hoped to see a light at the end of the tunnel earlier this year with their promise to accept our boneless beef.

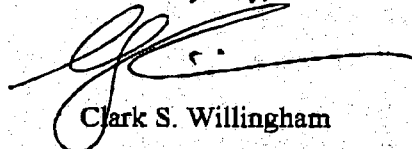

Yet we now see clearly that these were empty promises, as South Korea simply refuses to play by the rules. Their partial re-opening has been an uphill battle since the beginning of the year, and the recent shipment rejections due to miniscule bone fragments is simply the last straw.

U.S. cattle producers urge the Administration to take all possible actions to bring about a resolution to this conflict with South Korea. If a desirable resolution is impossible, we urge you to consider alternative actions to be taken from that point forward.

To reiterate: although South Korea finally agreed to re-open its borders to boneless beef in January 2006, we have seen nothing but protracted stalling since then. Their inspectors were extremely sluggish in getting to the U.S. plants; the Korean media continues to make contemptible claims about the safety of our beef; they delayed for nearly a month on deciding the definition of a bone chip; and to top it off, took weeks to actually inspect recent shipments of beef, only to ultimately reject them.

South Korea's continued embargo on U.S. beef proves their roots in protectionism show little sign of dissolving. I appreciate any attention you can personally give to this important issue for U.S. cattle producers, and look forward to continuing to work with you on this and all cattle industry trade issues.

Yours very truly,

Clark S. Willingham
