coming from insurance that covers officers and directors who were accused of misleading investors about the company's earnings growth and expenses. The company also will make changes in its corporate structure requiring executives to be more accountable to shareholders and will take a $10.8-million charge against second-quarter earnings to pay for the settlement, officials said in a release. 'Most of the managers who were the target of these allegations are gone from the company,' spokeswoman LeAnne Zumwalt said. Victor M.G. Chaltiel, Total Renal's chairman and chief executive, stepped down last July along with the company's chief financial officer. The resignations came after Total Renal announced that second-quarter earnings also would miss financial estimates." (Los Angeles Times, 7/26/00)

- In July 1994 it was reported that "Abbey Healthcare filed an arbitration claim against former President M. G. Chaltiel this month, alleging that he misrepresented his company, Total Pharmaceutical Care, in November when he sold it to Abbey for $194 million. In a document related to the arbitration, Abbey says Chaltiel concealed the fact that Total Pharmaceutical was operating illegally in New York. Chaltiel also wrongly claimed that his company had a better bill-collection record than other companies in its industry, Abbey charged." (Orange County Register, 7/20/94)

Dr. James C. Dobson
Colorado Springs, Colorado

Dear Jim:

Happy 70th Birthday! Laura and I are pleased to send our best wishes as you celebrate this special day.

You have led a remarkable life that is great in accomplishments, and your good work has helped enrich and strengthen our Nation. I appreciate your leadership and your commitment to family and faith.

May the coming years be filled with health and happiness.

God bless you.

Sincerely,

George W. Bush

MAH - Just an FYI - we're doing a letter to James Dobson for his 70th birthday. I know that sometimes Tim G sends this kind of stuff to both of us, so.... :) Anyway, it'll go to Brett for review today - any input on AP vs H/S?
