copy to Jenn
Brosnahan

Dear Mr. Kavanaugh:

In accordance with the authority granted to me by the Presidential Records Act, Section 2203(c) (2), I approve of disposal of the categories of bulk mail received electronically described in your letter of November 9, 2004. These categories are:

- Certain categories of public mail to the President, the First Lady, including anonymous correspondence, correspondence with an incomplete address, mail from prolific writers, and public opinion mail, when such mail is received electronically via the Internet or by other electronic transfer systems.

As in the past, I recommend that representatives of the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), in coordination with the White House Office of Records Management, OA and other appropriate staff, develop an effective procedure for review and retention of a sample of these records before disposal. The samples will be retained permanently as an illustration of this mail. NARA will inform you if we identify groups of materials that should not be destroyed during sampling.

I do not intend to take any congressional action with regard to this request as provided for by Section 2203(e) of the Presidential Records Act.

I support your effort to continue the disposal of bulk mail and to extend this procedure to electronic bulk mail.

This practice has been very successful since it began in 1982

Sincerely,

JOHN W. CARLIN
Archivist of the United States

Harriet Miers
Assistant to the President
and Staff Secretary
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Ms. Miers:

In accordance with the authority granted to me by the Presidential Records Act, Section 2203(c) (2), I approve of disposal of the two (2) categories of textual Presidential bulk mail described in your letter of March 28, 2001. Those categories are:

- (1) Certain categories of public mail to the President, the First Lady and their staffs including anonymous correspondence, correspondence with an incomplete address, mail from prolific writers, and public opinion mail. Samples, when appropriate, will be retained.
- (2) Publications, brochures, clippings and other types of enclosures in public mail, when there is no immediate or historical importance to the materials.

As in the past, I recommend that representatives of the National Archives and Records Administration, in coordination with the White House Office of Records Management, review these materials before disposal and take samples when appropriate. These samples will be retained permanently. If groups of materials that should not be destroyed are identified during sampling, the National Archives will inform you.

I do not intend to take any Congressional action with regard to this request as provided for by Section 2203(e) of the Presidential Records Act.

I support your effort to continue the disposal of Presidential bulk mail. This practice has been very successful since it began in 1982, and, as you point out, has been mutually beneficial for both the White House and the National Archives and Records Administration.

Sincerely,

JOHN W. CARLIN
Archivist of the United States
