Mr. Karl Rove
Senior Advisor to the President
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Rove:

On September 18-20, 2002, I will be hosting a National Issues Forum in Washington for over 60 business leaders and elected officials from my Congressional District. I would be honored if you would consider taking time out of your busy schedule to be the keynote speaker for this Forum at a breakfast on Friday, September 20, 2002 at 8:30 a.m. The breakfast will be held at the Capitol Hill Hyatt, 400 New Jersey Avenue, N.W.

The goal of the Forum is to promote awareness of and participation in federal policy by my constituents, and I believe that your knowledge and expertise of federal issues that impact states and local communities will be of great benefit to those in attendance. As a top advisor to the President, I would ask that you speak to the group about the President's domestic agenda for the remainder of this crucial election year, as well as his initiatives to secure the lives of our citizens at home and abroad as we fight the War on Terror.

Ellen Weaver in my DC office will contact your scheduler to confirm your participation. She may also be reached at (202) 225-6030 or by email at ellen.weaver@mail.house.gov. I appreciate your consideration of this request and thank you in advance for your help.

Sincerely,

Jim DeMint
Member of Congress

Dear Mr. Rove:

Following yesterday's article by James Dao in the International Herald Tribune (NY Times 7/29) please find enclosed herewith copies of self-explanatory correspondence which Mr. Souham has asked me to send along, as he is currently traveling overseas.

FYI Mr. Souham's friend Harold Burson shared the same concerns last fall.

Dear Ms. Beers:

I have had the honor of serving, both under Presidents Reagan and Bush Sr. as a pro bono private sector international advisor. I am a bicultural American born in France, a registered Republican and a member of the Republican Task Force. Enclosed herewith are some letters from previous administrations. I am writing to let you know that I am ready to serve again.

I have resolved many issues with European governments and media organizations for both Fortune 500 companies and the US Government when the US Administrations were unable to do so. I have a deep knowledge of the French scene in particular, Europe in general. Many of its leaders know me and acknowledge my input, from the French President on down the line, including those on the Socialist side.

I am concerned about current media management of the war on terrorism, particularly the distorted presentation, including the anti-American bias with which some European coverage resounds of late.

Beyond France, my expertise in Public Affairs, Troubleshooting and Public Relations extends to Western continental Europe. I am also a member of the USO's World Board of Governors in Washington, D.C. (where I worked with Senator Chuck Hagel) and Chairman of its Council in France.

We have an alma mater in common: J. Walter Thompson, where I spent 19 years in an executive capacity in Europe and as an officer of the US Company before the WPP takeover. I have since opened my own business in the United States and Europe and sit on boards of multinational corporations. Prior to JWT, I served as a Public Information Officer for NATO's largest air command with Cosmic Top Secret security clearance.

The creation of your new post has been long overdue. My sincerest congratulations on your new, challenging appointment and my best wishes for the success of your mission. If there is anything you feel I can do, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Sincerely,

Dear Governor Bush:

Many of its leaders know me and acknowledge my input, from the President down the line including those on the Socialist side.

The state of the relationship between the two countries is not good. Not good at the top, not good elsewhere. The current Ambassador was not the best choice for the post, in my opinion.

Beyond France, my expertise in Public Affairs, troubleshooting, Public Relations extend to Western continental Europe. For your further information I am a member of the USO's Board of Governors in Washington, D.C. (where I worked with Chuck Hagel) and Chairman of its Council in France.

I remain available to make any future pro bono contributions you may have in mind for me.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 13, 1985

Dear Mr. Souham:

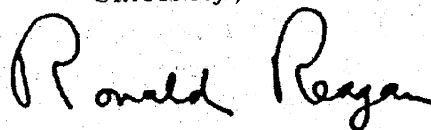

Warmth, generosity, and spirited dedication have long been recognized as prominent characteristics of the American people. When I established the Office of Private Sector Initiatives at the White House, I knew the American people would respond. This response has been overwhelming, and I am touched each time I hear another example of the results of personal voluntarism.

The Private Sector Committees of the United States Information Agency have made particularly outstanding contributions. Director Charles Wick has kept me informed of the invaluable advice he has received from committee chairmen and members.

On the occasion of your Second Annual Meeting, I would like to extend my personal appreciation for the time and talent you have volunteered, at no cost to the government, to the U.S. Information Agency and our Nation.

You exemplify the great American spirit and I salute you.

Sincerely,

Dear Jerry,

As you are aware, your term on the USO World Board of Governors has expired. On behalf of the entire USO organization, I would like to express my thanks for your service on the Board and your support of our men and women in uniform through the USO. Over the past few years, we have made great strides to provide long-term stability for the organization to ensure its viability for the future.

Thanks to your participation, the USO continues to "Deliver America" to our sons and daughters in uniform wherever they are called to serve. Today, our programs are reaching those in harm's way, far from friends and family during the holidays.

We appreciate your service on the Board and hope we can count on your continued support. Best wishes for the holidays and the coming year.

Dear Mr. Rove,

As the Administration continues to take a leadership role in working with both Congress and the private sector to address our nation's most challenging healthcare issues, I extend an invitation for you to be the keynote speaker at our upcoming Board of Directors meeting for Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plans across the United States. The 43 independent, locally operated Blue Cross and Blue Shield companies collectively provide healthcare coverage for 84.4 million individuals – nearly 30 percent of all Americans.

The meeting will be held September 18-19, 2002 at the Willard Hotel. We are hosting a dinner for the attendees on Wednesday, September 18 from 7:00 – 9:00 p.m., which would be an ideal time for your presentation. If, however, you are unable to at that time, we do have the flexibility to adjust our Board schedule to accommodate your availability on either September 18 or 19.

The Board of Directors of the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Association is made of up the Chief Executive Officers from each of the 43 independent Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plans. Our Plans are active participants in every aspect of health coverage from Medicare and Medicare+Choice to the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program to the large and small employer group markets and the individual healthcare market.

With the mid-term elections just around the corner, our CEOs would be interested in your views on the role healthcare will likely play as voters head to the polls in November. We also would be very interested in the Administration's legislative agenda for healthcare, particularly in the areas of Medicare, the uninsured and the rising cost of healthcare.

I would suggest that your presentation could be 10 to 15 minutes of remarks followed by questions and answers from the audience.

I look forward to hearing from you and hope that you will be able to join us.

Sincerely,

Dear Karl:

On Friday, September 20, 2002 CRISIS Magazine will host its 20th Anniversary Partnership Dinner at the Four Seasons Hotel in Georgetown.

Not only will we be honoring Robert Novak, the well-known television commentator and columnist, we wish also to recognize you by inviting you to be on our first Honorary Committee.

Kate O'Beirne and Fred Barnes will help pay tribute to Novak's years of service as a journalist to our country and now, as a convert, to the Church.

The Chairs of our Honorary Committee will be Mr. & Mrs. Frank Hanna, III of Atlanta. ; Already committed to serve on this committee are Mr. and Mrs. George Weigel; Mr. & Mrs. John M. As the Administration continues to take a leadership role in working with both Congress and the private sector to address our nation's most challenging healthcare issues, I extend an invitation for you to be the keynote speaker at our upcoming Board of Directors meeting for Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plans across the United States. The 43 independent, locally operated Blue Cross and Blue Shield companies collectively provide healthcare coverage for 84.4 million individuals – nearly 30 percent of all Americans.

The meeting will be held September 18-19, 2002 at the Willard Hotel. We are hosting a dinner for the attendees on Wednesday, September 18 from 7:00 – 9:00 p.m., which would be an ideal time for your presentation. If, however, you are unable to at that time, we do have the flexibility to adjust our Board schedule to accommodate your availability on either September 18 or 19.

The Board of Directors of the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Association is made of up the Chief Executive Officers from each of the 43 independent Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plans. Our Plans are active participants in every aspect of health coverage from Medicare and Medicare+Choice to the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program to the large and small employer group markets and the individual healthcare market.

With the mid-term elections just around the corner, our CEOs would be interested in your views on the role healthcare will likely play as voters head to the polls in November. We also would be very interested in the Administration's legislative agenda for healthcare, particularly in the areas of Medicare, the uninsured and the rising cost of healthcare.

I would suggest that your presentation could be 10 to 15 minutes of remarks followed by questions and answers from the audience.

I look forward to hearing from you and hope that you will be able to join us.

Sincerely,

■ Memorandum

To: Kelly Tiedge (Via Facsimile)
From: Luther Strange
Date: September 6, 2001
Subject: Meeting with Karl Rove

On behalf of Alabama Attorney General Bill Pryor and myself, I would like to request a meeting with Karl Rove on Wednesday, September 19th. The purpose of the meeting would be to update Karl on issues facing the Attorney General, the Republican Attorneys General Association and the State of Alabama.

As you know, General Pryor will be running for re-election in 2002. I have agreed to serve again as his statewide campaign chairman.

Thank you very much for your attention to this request.

I am keenly interested in receiving an invitation to the upcoming economic forum on August 13 in Waco, Texas. I am CEO and President of a fast growing software development firm, Hansen Information Technologies, in Sacramento, California. Despite the recent downturn in the economy, Hansen continues to thrive. I believe that I offer a unique perspective on how government and private industry can work together to get the economy rolling again. Hansen is also working on a number of Homeland Security and Asset Infrastructure assurance initiatives with the FBI and CIAO as they relates to state and local government. Please accept my request to participate in your upcoming forum. I look forward to your speedy response.

Sincerely,

Charles A. Hansen

President and CEO

Karl,

Just a short note to offer my assistance as you begin to think about a re-election effort. As you may remember, I helped Josh Bolten out during the campaign on trade issues. Desiree and I would be happy to help in Illinois, or on the national level.

Congratulations on the trade bill, which I followed closely on behalf of several clients, including Wal-Mart, Sara Lee/Hanes and Payless. I hope the press recognizes what a major achievement this is and a great credit the President's leadership. Clinton could not do this in eight years, two of which were with a Democratically controlled Congress.

Mr. Karl Rove
White House Senior Advisor
The White House

Washington, DC 20502

Dear Mr. Rove:

The American-Scandinavian Foundation (ASF) will hold its Annual Gala Dinner on Tuesday, October 15, 2002 at the New York Grand Hyatt Hotel, and we are most privileged to have Their Majesties King Harald V and Queen Sonja of Norway as our special guests.

At a recent meeting with Robert B. Willumstad, President of Citigroup, Inc., he mentioned the pride you take in your Norwegian heritage, and I write you now to invite you to be an Honorary Member of the Gala Dinner Committee for this memorable evening. I hope you will give serious consideration to playing a role in this event, and help the Foundation celebrate the strong bonds between Norway and America promoted by the ASF for more than 90 years.

Since its founding in 1910, the ASF has been dedicated to promoting international understanding by means of educational and cultural exchange between the United States and Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway, and Sweden. To this end, the ASF carries on an extensive program of fellowships, grants, trainee placement, publishing, membership offerings, and cultural activities, as well as operating Scandinavia House: The Nordic Center in America on Park Avenue in New York City.

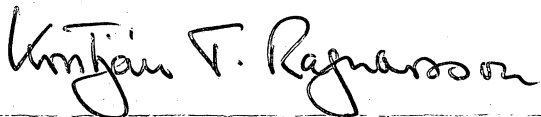

The Annual Gala is a unique celebration of the close bonds that exist between the five Nordic countries and the U.S. It will also be an occasion for all of us, regardless of national connections, to join our Norwegian friends and pay tribute to Their Majesties King Harald V and Queen Sonja of Norway.

As an Honorary Member of the Gala Dinner Committee, you would be asked to lend your name to the invitation and program. Furthermore, your attendance at the Gala would be a wonderful addition to the evening. In addition to our honored guests, Nordic and American leaders from the realms of politics, business and culture will join us for this important event.

I do hope that it will be possible for you to join us and serve as an Honorary Member of the Gala Dinner Committee for the event. If you have any questions or need additional information, please call me at 212-879-9779 or Christine Madden in the Event Office at 212-725-7139. We would be happy to discuss further details at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Line by Line-

6-6:30 cocktails. Very casual- milling around. Cocktails and Hors d'oeuvres will be served.

6:30 Everyone will take their assigned seats for the dinner. There will be either be 3 tables of 10 or 4 tables of 8, RSVP's are still coming in and we want to accommodate everyone.

Appetizer- Tony Feather will get up and welcome everyone. Thank them for attending and their participation in PFA. Tony will let everyone know, there won't be Q&A, we want everyone to have time to chat with their guests at each table. Each VIP will make short remarks and then we will enjoy the course.

Intermezzo- Judge Gonzales

Main Course- Karl Rove remarks (see talking points below)

Dessert- Ken Mehlman remarks (see talking points below)

Talking Points- Karl Rove

- As Judge Gonzales said, Progress for America has proven over and over again to be helpful to this administration.
- The Administration has had some large successes in our less than two years in office. Many of which, PFA has played a substantial role - Tax Cut, 'No Child Left Behind' and most recently TPA. We actually had the bill signing this week for TPA, thanks to many of you that played a roll helping get that passed.
- PFA is what I like to call the administration's 'utility player'. There are so many groups out there doing wonderful things to help the President, but PFA plays a unique roll, they fill in what is not getting done. If we need letters to the editor in a particular state or district, PFA makes sure that gets done; if we need community leaders to meet with Members, they make sure to get that done, etc.
- In the early part of President Bush's term, there was much talk of President Bush's domestic legislative agenda. But the national conversation dramatically changed after our nation was attacked on September 11th. Our country went through a terrible tragedy that has changed us. The way we do business has changed forever. We are working very hard to put together a Department of Homeland Security so we are prepared to protect ourselves at home as well as we do abroad. While we will never forget those who gave so much for our country, while we must understand there is a war going on, we can not allow the President's campaign promises to fall by the wayside. .

- The President himself has made it clear there are still important domestic issues that must be addressed during this Congress. No matter what crises we face in foreign policy there are still issues we must address here at home.
- This President is committed to turning the economy around. We have a three prong approach- tax cut; trade promotion authority and an economic stimulus package that promotes jobs and promotes investment. Future economic initiatives on the President's agenda??
- Will tort reform be on the President's agenda? If so, comments on that.
- PFA has been successful thanks to so many of you- It is so important we do everything we can to help them be successful, because that in turn can mean, this Administration is successful.

Talking Points- Ken Mehlman

- PFA has a similar plan to the Bush campaign in '00- they understand that in this day with so many organizations and campaigns up on TV, grassroots is vitally important to get an issue passed and build support.
- They understand it is the person-to-person contact that gets legislation passed- PFA recognizes building support among Republicans is not enough, they engage Democrats and Independents as well.
- We all know grassroots is not always the sexiest part of this business and it is hard to quantify how much grassroots works, but the bottom line is, it has been proven time and time again, grassroots works. It makes the difference. Look at TPA, we won in the House by ONE vote, that did not happen due to luck.
- PFA works the grassroots at a level not rivaled by many. They help carry legislation through and they realize that it takes business leaders, lawyers, doctors, community leaders, educators etc. in order to be successful.
- PFA emphasizes the positive sides of the legislation and how it is helpful to folks at home- they are not out on the attack- going negative.

- There are so many groups out there against the WH; Progress for America is out there 100% fighting for the President's agenda. They are a true friend to this Administration.
- PFA has a unique capability of being able to engage at the last minute on projects where we need an additional boost of grassroots in key areas – such as the President's tax cut, No Child Left Behind, TPA, judicial nominees.
- PFA has proven time and time again, they are there for the long haul- and they need your help to be successful.
- Touch on what we expect to see from 2002 election

Judge Gonzales received separate talking points. He will be speaking on Judicial nominees and the role PFA has played in building grassroots support for that effort.

Dear Mr. President,
My name is Harold Pollard - I was one of the obstetricians on the Round table panel on medical malpractice liability in High Point N.C. Thursday 7/25/02. I realize you may not get this letter but I thought I would write it anyway to say thank you for coming to North Carolina and thank you for taking a strong position on the liability issue.

I was impressed with your knowledge and the grasp you have of the issue. Your position and proposals are clearly in the best interest of physicians, hospitals, and other health care providers. More importantly, your position is in the best interests of patients and the public.

I must say that last Thursday along with the events of the last year have made me prouder than ever to be an American.

Thank you for all you do for all of us!

Dear Karl,

I was sickened by the attack that Terry McAuliffe made on GW at the Convention in Las Vegas. I don't know what the ultimate outcome of Ursula's constitutional challenge to the Foundation Agreement will be (I don't know if the Solilicitor General has had a chance to peruse it), but if successful I would have no problems in expressing my opinion, which I have already done in the newspapers, that this was the biggest fraud perpetrated on American Jewry (except of course for the stipend that is being paid for Russian Jewish emigration to Israel) by President Clinton and his Democratic Administration. The Japanese courts are paying $85,0000 apiece per slave labor. The Germans are paying $3400 and over 90% of the beneficiaries are non-US citizens and non-Jews. Restitution is another matter altogether.

As always,

THE 8TH ANNUAL REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL
Regain the Majority
DINNER

Senator Bill Frist, M.D.
NRSC Chairman

August 6, 2002

Mrs. Edward C. Amorello

(b)(6)

Dear Mrs. Amorello:

I write today to ask you to be part of a select group of business and community leaders and to attend a special tribute to our Republican Senators, featuring President George W. Bush as our special guest.

The Republican Senatorial Inner Circle will host its Fall National Meeting in Washington, D.C. on September 24-25, 2002. The Fall Meeting has been scheduled in conjunction with the Eighth Annual Republican Senatorial Dinner featuring President Bush on Wednesday, September 25. I hope you will be able to join us for both events.

You are receiving this invitation today because you were recently recommended to the Republican Senate Leadership for membership in the exclusive Republican Senatorial Inner Circle as one of the 60 members from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Congratulations. I hope you will accept your invitation immediately.

The Republican Senatorial Inner Circle was chartered in 1979 as an informal sounding board for our nation's decision-makers. Former President George H.W. Bush, General Norman Schwarzkopf, former British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher and Rush Limbaugh are just a few of the national and international leaders who have personally addressed the Inner Circle in the past.

Because the Inner Circle is comprised of physicians, attorneys, small business owners and responsible citizens from all across the country who pay taxes, raise families and participate in their communities, Inner Circle Members offer real-life perspective and valuable input on today's issues.

In much the same way that my years of practicing medicine have given me unique insight into legislating health care as a U.S. Senator, I know your professional and personal experience will offer our nation's leaders important insight into your area of expertise.

The Inner Circle meets at least twice a year here in Washington for Fall and Spring National Meetings. These national gatherings include a balanced mix of business and social meetings including briefings by Members of the U.S. Senate and House as well as policy experts and other party leaders on pressing issues of the day.

The Republican Senatorial Inner Circle Fall National Meeting will be held on September 24-25, 2002 at the grand and historic Mayflower Hotel in Washington, D.C. Invitations have already been sent to our nation's most notable political leaders and I know you will be impressed by the slate of panelists and speakers we gather for our Fall Meeting.

The Republican Senatorial Medal of Freedom Awards Dinner is traditionally the highlight of the Inner Circle's Fall Meeting. Each year, the Republican Senate Leadership honors a national or international public official and celebrates their accomplished career. Past Medal of Freedom recipients include former President Ronald Reagan, former British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher, and Retired General Norman Schwarzkopf, among others. I know you will be thrilled to be part of this important tradition.

For 2002, the true highlight of the Fall Meeting will be the Republican Senatorial "Regain the Majority" Dinner with special guest, President George W. Bush. A sitting President has never attended this annual celebration before and the President's attendance this year sends a clear message to all Republicans.

President Bush needs us to return the Senate to Republican control in November.

Because we must deliver a Republican Senate to the President, I am making a special pre-election offer to new Inner Circle members. I have arranged for each new Inner Circle member to receive one complimentary ticket to the Republican Senatorial Dinner.

This year, tickets to the Senatorial Dinner are $2,500 each. However, I am making this special offer to encourage Inner Circle nominees to accept their invitation and join this important group in time to help our Republican Senate candidates get elected in November.

The opportunity to see the President, attend the Republican Senatorial Dinner and participate in the Medal of Freedom Dinner in a single trip to Washington is quite an extraordinary occurrence. I am delighted to be able to offer such an exciting opportunity.

However, if you are unable to attend the Republican Senatorial Dinner, I encourage you to support the Dinner's goal to Regain the Majority by signing on as a member of Team 2002. We will only achieve our goal to return Republican control of the Senate to President Bush if we work as a team....and I am hoping to have you on our side.

At the Republican Senatorial Dinner on September 25, I will personally present President Bush with a list bearing the names of every Team 2002 member who has given their support to our goal of Regaining our Republican Majority. There is no more important political challenge for President Bush than regaining the majority and I want him to know the names of every dedicated Republican who stands with him in this critical pursuit.

In addition to being included on the list, each Team 2002 member will receive a commemorative gift package in appreciation of their support. Each gift package will include a Regain the Majority Lapel Pin (which I hope you will wear to the polls on November 5) and a Team 2002 Certificate packaged in a commemorative box.

Please mark your calendar today and make plans to join us for these extraordinary events.

This strikes me as bizarre. He will not read them.

I certainly understand if you are unable to travel to Washington for this event, but know that Inner Circle membership features many benefits beyond our meetings and celebrations and even beyond special recognition opportunities like membership in Team 2002.

As an Inner Circle member, you will also receive e-mail updates alerting you to breaking political news as well as the current state of the 2002 elections and other information on Washington's political activities. In addition, you will have the full services of the Inner Circle office here in Washington available to you, including your own personal representative, and constant access to political information on both our public and members-only web sites. Further, as an Inner Circle Member, you will have the opportunity to join interactive conference calls with many Republican Senators.

Inner Circle membership lasts for one full calendar year – regardless of when you join. As a member in good standing in the Republican Senatorial Inner Circle, in addition to the Fall National Meeting and Republican Senatorial Dinner featuring President George W. Bush, you will receive special invitations to attend many of the Republican Party's most important national events.

During presidential election years, Inner Circle members are invited to attend the extraordinary celebrations that surround the Republican National Convention and the Inauguration of a Republican President. Although these events are two years away, I cannot guarantee that the Inner Circle will be accepting new members as we approach the 2004 elections. Accepting this invitation now is the only way to guarantee your membership for the next GOP Convention and Republican Presidential Inauguration.

There are many other benefits to Inner Circle membership. I have enclosed an official Inner Circle Membership Prospectus that outlines those benefits in more detail.

Losing our Republican Senate Majority last year served as a wake-up call for Republicans all across the nation. This is no time for us to be complacent.

As the November elections approach, Democrats are increasingly desperate. They know that if President Bush stays popular, they could lose the Senate. They've turned up the rhetoric, increased the attacks on our President and proven that they will stop at nothing to maintain their obstructionist control over the Senate.

It's up to us – as a Team – to defend the President and his agenda.

We are blessed with a true leader in the White House. George W. Bush is a man with a vision for the future of our country and the courage to pursue it. A future that ensures we will meet our commitments to our nation's citizens while setting a bold new course for the next generation. Our President will provide us with a strong defense, superior education system, and security for our homeland. He will continue the fight for a robust economy, job stability and lower taxes, but he needs your help. He needs a Republican Majority in the U.S. Senate.

As Chairman of the National Republican Senatorial Committee, I count on the Inner Circle to deliver the commitment and the resources we need to guarantee a Republican Majority in the United States Senate. Republican Senatorial Inner Circle dues are used to help elect and re-elect Republicans to the U.S. Senate.

I hope you will take this opportunity to become a member of the Republican Senatorial Inner Circle today. With a full membership payment of $2,000 for a single membership or $3,000 for a double membership, you can make a difference by helping to Regain a Republican Senate Majority.

And by accepting your invitation now and attending the Inner Circle Fall National Meeting, each new member will receive one complimentary ticket to the Eighth Annual Republican Senatorial Dinner featuring President George W. Bush. I am making this special offer to encourage you to send your membership dues in time to help our Republican candidates get elected on November 5. So please, don't delay.

The Senatorial Dinner, with President Bush as our special guest, will sell out. Tickets will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. To absolutely guarantee your reservations for the Senate Dinner, as well as your attendance at the Fall National Meeting, please call the Inner Circle at (800) 877-6773 and receive your confirmation code today. A nominal conference fee will required for Fall Meeting attendance.

Even if you cannot join the Inner Circle today, I strongly encourage you to send a contribution of $500, $250 or whatever you can to support our campaigns to return a Republican Senate Majority to President Bush in the November elections.

With your contribution of $100 or more, you may officially join Team 2002 and receive the special Team 2002 gift package including a Certificate and a Regain the Majority Lapel Pin. Your contribution will also keep your invitation to join the Inner Circle active, in case you choose to join at a later date.

Membership in the Inner Circle is limited. If you are interested in joining this influential group, and attending our exclusive national events, including the first-ever Senatorial Dinner with President George W. Bush, please return your RSVP and your membership dues or special contribution right away to guarantee your space.

It is my goal to be sure you are always proud of the support you give the Inner Circle and I know you will be proud of the role you play in removing bitterly partisan Democrats from their leadership positions in the U.S. Senate.

I hope you will take advantage of this exceptional opportunity and join us by calling the Inner Circle office and returning your RSVP card in the next few days. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Senator Bill Frist, M.D.
Chairman

P.S. Please take a moment to review the material I have enclosed. I believe you will be a valuable member of the Inner Circle and I look forward to exchanging ideas and experiences with you.

Regardless of whether you can attend Inner Circle National Meetings or the Republican Senatorial Dinner, I hope you will return the enclosed RSVP Card right away with your full membership dues of $2,000 per person or $3,000 per couple. Even if you cannot join at this time, I urge you to return a contribution of $500, $250 or whatever you can to support our goal to Regain the Majority and to join Team 2002.

If you have questions regarding Inner Circle membership or events, please don't hesitate to contact the Inner Circle's Washington, D.C. office at (800) 877-6773. Thank you.
