Linda-

Sorry to bother you at the last minute - But, the Missouri Republican party is hosting a dinner on Friday night in honor of Ann Wagner and we really neet to get a letter written from President Bush.

Missouri Statewide Lincoln Day 2001
February 16 - 18
Hyatt Regency - Union Station
St. Louis

The dinner is this Friday and it's entitled "The Missouri Republican Party Dinner and Auction" and its part of their Lincoln Day event schedule

Here is a bio on Ann Wagner:

Ann Wagner was recently Elected Co-Chairman of the RNC.
Ann Wagner was unanimously elected Chairman of the Missouri Republican Party in January of 1999 and reelected by acclamation -- with a rousing ovation -- on January 6, 2001. She is the first woman to head the Missouri GOP and the first St. Louisan in decades to hold the Party's top post. Ann had been the state Republican Party's Vice Chairman and serves as the Republican Committeewoman for Lafayette Town in West St. Louis County. She was unanimously elected Co-Chairman of the Republican National Committee a Winter Meeting in Washington, D.C. on January 18th, 2001.

Ann is a longtime party activist who served as the GOP's Director of the House and Senate Redistricting Commi. Ann's successes in that process have enabled the Republican Party to gain numerous seats in the Missouri Leg. She served as the Missouri State Executive Director of the Bush/Quayle Campaign in 1992, the 2nd Congressio of the Dole for President Campaign in 1996 and as an advisor for the Ashcroft for Senate Campaign in 1994. An substantial experience in raising money for a variety of campaigns.

Ann is a common-sense conservative who values teamwork and a strong, pro-active grassroots organization. In Ann was recognized at State Lincoln Days as the Republican of the Year. She fully understands that winning ele first and most critical step toward shaping public policy.

Ann is a graduate of the University of Missouri-Columbia where she earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in 1984. She attended college on a vocal music scholarship. Ann held management positions at t Cards in Kansas City and Ralston Purina in St. Louis before entering Republican politics.

Ann is married to Mr. Ray Wagner who is Vice President of Legal and Legislative Affairs for Enterprise Rent-A-C. The Wagners have three children: Raymond III, Stephen and Mary Ruth.
