Reference Report
Neil Gorsuch

Jessica Bartlow
Administrative Assistant and Recruiting Coordinator to Gorsuch

P6/b6

Background

- Jessica has worked for Neil over the past six years.
- She came to him from a non-profit agency, with no legal experience.
- Neil trained her and took the time to teach her virtually all of the legal skills she knows today (she was attending law school at night while working for Neil).

Notes

- Neil is demanding and a perfectionist, but not anal or a micromanager.
- He gives Jessica freedom to get the job done.
- He has supported her taking classes, even with the demands of his job.
- The nature of the work is high paced and stressful, but Neil keeps the morale high.
 - When it's midnight and you're still at work, Neil will always make sure to rally the troops.
- Jessica is always comfortable telling Neil that she made a mistake – she knows that she can tell him the truth.
- If Neil is excited, he expects you to be excited too – his standards are high.
- He is demanding, but you learn from him.
- He has high expectations of your performance and attention to detail.
- It takes a lot to keep up with Neil.
- He doesn't hoard information – he wants you to know what he knows.
- "It hasn't been all wine and roses, but that is the nature of our job. Neil has high expectations, but sometimes that is the best type of person to learn from."
