Today is Mrs. Bush's birthday. I announced the gift. She is named after Uncle Beasley in Oliver Butterworth's children's book "The Enormous Egg."

beasley (we should check spelling) belongs to mrs. bush. we hope that she will take residence at the White House just before Christmas. she was born on 10/28. these are photos of her at 1 day old.

also, beasley is related to barney. beasley's dad is barney's half brother (they have the same dad but different mothers). so i guess it makes barney beasley's uncle kind of... maybe through marriage?
