HOLLYWOOD HOMICIDE

Starring Harrison Ford, Josh Hartnett, Lena Olin, Bruce Greenwood. Directed by Ron Shelton. Produced by Ron Shelton and Lou Pitt. Crime/Drama. Rated PG-13 for violence, sexual situations and language. A Sony Pictures release. Running time 111 min.

Veteran detective Joe Gavilan, a weary but tenacious police veteran at the top of his game professionally, though his personal life is rapidly unraveling. His partner, K.C. Calden, seems to be more interested in his side jobs as a yoga teacher and aspiring actor than in the high-profile gangland-style murder they are currently investigating. Welcome to the land of blue skies, palm trees and dead bodies.

2 FAST 2 FURIOUS

Starring Paul Walker, Tyrese Gibson, Eva Mendes, Cole Hauser. Directed by John Singleton. Produced by Neal H Moritz. A Universal release. Action/Thriller. Rated PG-13 for violence, language and some sensuality. Running time: 100 min.

Speed--it's easy to get and it's as close as the nearest set of high-performance wheels. Brian O'Connor, now a disgraced cop, fell victim to it--and now he's paying the price. As far as his bosses and the FBI brass are concerned, the hothead undercover officer threw one of their largest investigations ever. After losing his badge and any chance of redemption along with it, O'Connor is given one last chance when the feds in Miami need his help to collar Carter Verone, a flashy businessman whose using his import/export business as a cover for an international money laundering cartel. Customs has had Verone under intense surveillance for over a year with nothing more to show for it than the kingpin's link to illegal street racing. With their backs against the wall and time running out, officials put out a call for O'Connor to do what he does best--talk the talk and push the metal. But the rule-breaking loner has his own demands before taking on the job. He insists on recruiting his childhood friend and ex-con Roman Pearce as his partner. The Feds and Agent Markham offer Pearce, an accomplished criminal with an aptitude for barrier-shattering speed, a deal--work with O'Connor and his impressive rap sheet will disappear. Now, it's last chance for both, ex-con and ex-cop, and their ticket out of disgrace is bringing down Verone. But the lines become blurred once again for O'Connor with the appearance of undercover agent Monica Fuentes, the key to entering Verone's world who may herself be in bed with the shady entrepreneur.

THE IN-LAWS

Starring Michael Douglas, Albert Brooks, Ryan Reynolds and Lindsay Sloane. Directed by Andrew Fleming. A Warner Bros. release. Comedy/Romance. Rated Pg-13 for suggestive humor, language, some drug references and action violence. Running time: 98 min.

When prospective fathers-in-law Steve Tobias and Jerry Peyser meet for the first time to celebrate their children's upcoming marriage, the cake hits the fan. Dr. Jerome Peyser is a mild-mannered podiatrist with a well-organized daily routine designed to eliminate all possible sources of stress. Meanwhile, daredevil CIA operative Steve Tobias moves through life like a heat-seeking missile. His average day consists of dodging bullets, stealing private jets and negotiating with international arms smugglers. Now he's giving potential father-of-the-bride Jerry a serious case of pre-nuptial jitters. Steve's dramatic entrances and exits, his cryptic references to a Russian runaway named Olga and his fight with a gunman in a restaurant washroom causes Jerry to see a vision of his daughter's perfectly planned wedding blowing up in his face. As far as Jerry's concerned, letting Steve into his family takes "til death do us part" way too literally. Before he can say the wedding is off, Jerry suddenly finds himself embroiled in the chaos that follows in Steve's wake as he is dragged kicking and screaming into a series of perilous adventures that take the mismatched in-laws-to-be halfway around the world.

~~Chief~~
Dear Mr. President:

Just a note to tell you how pleased and appreciative I am, both personally and on behalf of the people of the state of Louisiana, to have had the assistance of the Department of Justice in the settlement of the longest standing desegregation case in the country.

Quite often the boss does not get letters complimenting his staff but that is exactly what this is. Attorney General John Ashcroft honored his commitment to me and helped us to conclude a very complicated desegregation lawsuit in Louisiana. It goes without saying that 48-year-old lawsuits have no rational reason to exist. Rational or not, they exist unless people of goodwill take time to make a real effort to wind them up.

My good friend and yours, my executive counsel Bernie Boudreaux, and Bob Driscoll, attorney for the Department of Justice, did what most thought was impossible. People in Louisiana are ecstatic, especially those in East Baton Rouge Parish, and your administration deserves a lot of the credit.

Thank you for having people like John Ashcroft in your cabinet.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Mike", written over a printed name.

This is just to let you know how much I, and all of the members of our class, appreciated your willingness to host the reunion dinner at the White House on May 29th. If anything, the rain, and the move of the event indoors, only added to the festive nature of the occasion. Your presence and willingness to spend as much time with the class as you did, was absolutely wonderful!

For my wife, Beth, and I, it was a special occasion which we will long remember.

Thank you again.

You have honored not only those of us in leadership of The Salvation Army who had the privilege of meeting with you this recently, but also the thousands of officers and volunteers on the front lines of service of The Salvation Army.

Thank you for allowing us the opportunity to meet with you in the Oval Office and share something of the ministry and service that takes place daily by the Salvation Army on behalf of God's love for mankind.

It was an honor to share those moments in prayer with you, as you are daily brought to God in prayer by thousands of people, many of whom are Salvationists.

We are grateful to God for the moral character and strength of leadership that you bring to your position and pledge to you, as our country's leader, the ongoing support of The Salvation Army

Dear Mr. President and Mrs. Bush,

The '68 Reunion at the White House was the best reunion I have ever been dragged to (Jeff's or my own)! We enjoyed every minute of our time with so many friends in such a majestic setting.

It was a real honor to shake both of your hands (and to have the President graciously pose for yet another picture)! We have been great admirers of President G.H.W. Bush and Mrs. Bush over the years but we are overwhelmed by your determination to seek office and restore dignity, integrity and humility to the White House.

We support you and salute you.

With sincere thanks for an evening we will never forget,

Mr. President,

So many of your classmates are with you 100% (and the yellow dog Dems don't matter!).

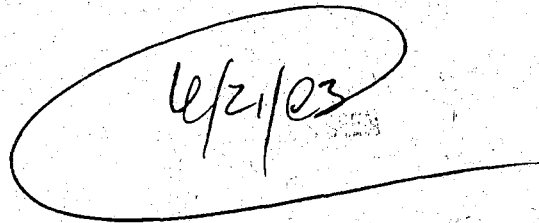

I'm doing the annual Andover Fund solicitations, and want to thank you for your contribution already made. Last year you contributed to your dad's scholarship and made an annual fund contribution, which went toward this year.

Your participation is much appreciated.

One day we hope you and Clay can join our now annual golf outing. This year we're going to Tahoe for 3 days of golf. 14 guys, including Hobson (France), Tony Bryant (Toronto), Steve Spare (N.C.), Vermin, Cathcarts, Peter Smith, Pfeifle (Texas), Tony Sapienza (Mass.). Pfeifle is the Commish, assigning handicaps.
Great fun.

Very best regards,

L. E.

O say, can you see,
by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed,
at the twilight's last gleaming.

Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched,
were so gallantly streaming.

And the rockets' red glare,
the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night,
that our flag was still there.

O say,
does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free,
and the home of the brave.

Dear President and Mrs. Bush

I can't tell you how much I appreciate the birthday party you had for me. I will always remember my 21st birthday as the most memorable one yet. To have so many of my friends in town was great, but to have it at the White House made it even more special. You have both been such a positive influence in my life. Again, I want to restate how much I appreciate your kindness.

Sincerely
Sammie F. Joseph III

Dear President and Mrs. Bush and all White House Staff,

We are writing to thank you for the honor and privilege you have shown to us and all the military families by opening up the White House for the Easter Roll. We are in our first tour here in Washington and we have passed by the White House many times, but it was sure awe inspiring to walk through the gates. The kids kept us running from character to character and my two year old kept his eyes peeled for Dora the Explorer, but we could not help but to feel that we may be walking in the same spot that Jefferson, Lincoln, or you yourself may have walked. Enclosed are a couple photos of our kids enjoying The Egg Roll.

Thank you,
The Burner Family

SCOTT P. SAYERS

Dear Mr. President,

It was great to have the opportunity to spend time with you and the First Lady. You are wonderful hosts and we really enjoyed the chance to have a nice visit. We miss you in Austin and it's been far too long since we had a chance to catch up. Here is the fishing shirt I promised and also a great summer read.

If you have a chance to visit Austin Golf Club this summer, Ben and I would love to have you - or if you need some playing partners in Naco we'll try to keep up. Ben could use some inspiration right now.

Please let us know if we can be of service.

Best regards,
Scotty

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN

President George W. Bush
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20502

Dear President Bush:

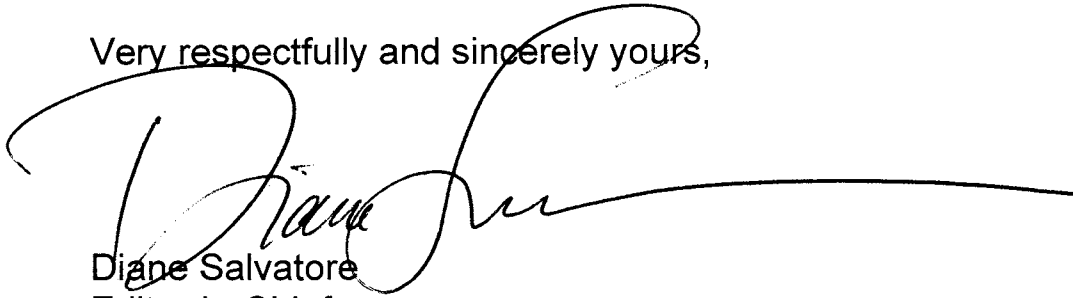

Thank you so much for the privilege and the honor of having the Ladies' Home Journal editorial team to the White House for our meeting with you and the First Lady. I'm especially appreciative of the generous amount of time you allowed us for both the photo shoot and the interview by Peggy Noonan, both of which I felt went terrifically well, and I hope you agree.

This was an historic opportunity for Ladies' Home Journal, and I know that our 13 million readers across the country will feel similarly privileged to learn your thoughts on everything from fatherhood to life in America post 9-11. I believe your staff has indicated that our October issue (hitting newsstands 9-9), of which you and Mrs. Bush will grace the cover, will include a special dedicated section on the lives of women who have tried to fashion some positive outcome, for themselves and the nation, from the Trade Center tragedy.

On a very personal note, I do want to share that my father was a Marine in the Korean War, and went on to serve as a New York City police officer for 33 years before he retired. He was particularly moved and proud that his daughter, as Editor-in-Chief of Ladies' Home Journal, was able to meet with the President of the United States, on this, the second anniversary of 9-11. So I thank you, also, for that.

I look forward to being able to send you Ladies' Home Journal's
October 2003 issue.

Very respectfully and sincerely yours,
