Collection is open to all researchers. Access to George W. Bush Presidential records is governed by the Presidential Records Act (PRA) (44 USC 22, as amended) and the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 USC 552, as amended) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Records in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George W. Bush's presidency are housed at the George W. Bush Presidential Library and are administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processing by

Staff Archivists, 2023. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released. Last Modified: 05/22/2023

Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2014-0201-F[1] are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of records responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult an archivist about related materials.

FOIA 2014-0201-F[1] requested emails sent to and from members of the George W. Bush Administration that contain any mention of former Vice President Albert Gore, Jr.

The first segment of this FOIA primarily contains correspondence regarding vandalism by the previous administration, failed email deliveries from outgoing staff, emails from the public, articles and newsletters concerning the Florida recount, and articles discussing the handling of 9/11 by a hypothetical Gore Administration. Emails that mention Al Gore but that are not specifically about him include policy papers, speech drafts, polls, legislative hearing transcripts, press briefing transcripts, political reports, RNC newsletters, miscellaneous articles and unsolicited resumes. This segment contains emails sent between January 20, 2001 and September 30, 2001.

System of Arrangement

The materials in FOIA 2014-0201-F[1] are a systematic body of records responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult an archivist about related materials.

Records responsive to this FOIA were found in these collection areas – George W. Bush Presidential Electronic Records.
