

Material at the George W. Bush Presidential Library Pertaining To the United States and United Kingdom's Relationship

Introduction

This list includes the principal files at the George W. Bush Presidential Library that contain material relating to the United Kingdom that have been processed and are available for research. It is not definitive, however, and researchers should consult with the Library's archivists about other potentially useful files.

This guide identifies materials that have been opened for research through systematic processing or under a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request. Check the George W. Bush Presidential Library website, as it is constantly updated with new finding aids and digitized content. If records are available via the Digital Library, a link has been provided.

To keyword search digitized content from across the National Archives and Records Administration, visit the National Archives Catalog. To see material exclusively from the George W. Bush Presidential Library, perform an Advanced Search selecting George W. Bush Presidential Library as the Location of Archival Materials.

Preferred Citation for records of the George W. Bush Presidential Library: Type of document; names of sender and recipient, or title of document; date; folder title or White House Office of Records Management Subject Code and case number; box number; Collection Title and series/subseries, George W. Bush Presidential Library.

White House Office of Records Management

The White House Office of Records Management is responsible for the filing and retrieval of records created during the incumbent presidential administration. Records are arranged by subject code and case file ID number according to their general subject matter.

Subject Files - CO178 (United Kingdom)

Staff Member Office Files (SMOF)

This collection consists of Presidential records from White House Staff Member Office Files (SMOF), 2001-2009, that served in the Administration of President George W. Bush. Each series is named after the individual staff member and/or office the office where they worked.

Online Resources

Archived White House website

In January 2009, the White House archived its website as a method of preserving the online presence of the Administration of President George W. Bush. The site is a resource for photographs, press releases, and other public records of the Bush Presidency. (NOTE: This site is no longer updated; some links may no longer work properly.)

The Art of Leadership: A President’s Personal Diplomacy

The Art of Leadership: A President’s Personal Diplomacy explored the personal and working relationships that President George W. Bush forged with world leaders to shape international policy and advance American interests abroad during the eight pivotal years of his administration. Open from April 5 to June 3, 2014, the exhibit presented, for the first time, President Bush’s post-presidency oil paintings of many of the world leaders.

“Dining and Diplomacy” Gallery

The menus and photographs in this gallery illustrate the wide range of diplomatic and social events hosted by President George W. Bush and Mrs. Laura Bush at the White House, Camp David, and the Prairie Chapel Ranch.
